Follow applicable AUS agency guidelines for any issue not addressed below. Guidance in blue font indicates alignment with AUS Agency guidelines and is subject to change.
Ability To Repay and Qualified Mortgage Rule	All loans must meet the Ability to Repay and Qualified Mortgage standards set forth in General QM Loan Definition of Reg. Z, effective April 1 2022, including the Safe Harbor Verification provisions, as codified in the official commentary to Regulation Z, comment 43(e)(2)(v)(B)-3.
Age of Documents	 For new and existing construction, credit documents must be no more than 4 months old (DU) or 120 days (LPA) on the date the note is signed, including credit reports and employment, income and asset documents. Preliminary Title Policies must be no more than 180 days old on the date the note is signed.

Appraisals	 All appraisals must comply with applicable regulations and standards, including but not limited to USPAP, FIRREA, AIR, and HVCC compliance. One full appraisal for purchase transactions on loan amounts up to $3,000,000 Two full appraisals for refinance transactions on loan amounts > $2,000,000 Must use the lower of the two values to determine LTV. All single appraisal transactions (purchase and refinance) must have a secondary valuation assessment completed prior to the note date with one of the following conditions satisfied: A Fannie Mae Collateral Underwriter® (CU) Score of < 2.5 and a Freddie Mac Loan Collateral Advisor® (LCA) score of < 2.5 is required If CU returns no score (999), an LCA < 2.5 is sufficient. If LCA returns no score (99), a CU score < 2.5 is sufficient. If two scores are obtained and either score is > 2.5, another assessment option referenced below is required. Clear Capital or Home Value Estimator (HVE) AVM with an estimated value that is > 90% of the appraised value and FSD < 13%
	 If the Clear Capital or HVE AVM supports the appraised value, a copy or screenshot of the AVM result, including the date, property address, estimated value, and FSD must be retained in the file Clear Capital Collateral Desktop Analysis (CDA) with a value that is > 90% of the appraised value If the CDA supports the appraised value, a report must be retained in the loan file Field Review with a value that supports the original appraised value If the field review supports the original appraised value, the report must be retained in the loan file If none of the secondary valuations conditions above can be met, an exterior appraisal or second full appraisal is required The lower of the first (original) and second (exterior or full) appraisal values must be used as the appraised value in the LTV calculation. If both an exterior and second full appraisal are obtained, the lower of the second full appraisal value and the original appraisal value must be used as the appraised value to determine LTV. Property inspection waivers are not eligible Unpermitted additions are not eligible Accessory units are acceptable (SFR only) when fully permitted and comply with zoning. Similar comps must be provided. Refer to the applicable AUS/GSE Selling Guide for complete requirements.
	Other Appraisal Considerations

Borrowers must unfreeze all bureaus and the AUS rerun with updated credit. IRS Installment Agreements – must meet the following requirements: IRS Installment Agreements associated with the installment agreement must be included in the calculation of the borrower's debt payment-to-income ratio if there are more than 10 months of payments remaining under the agreement. The loan file must include a copy of the installment agreement approved by the IRS verifying the payment terms, including the monthly payment amount and balance. The loan file must contain documentation verifying the borrower is not past due under the terms of the installment agreement. There must be no indication, and the lender must have no knowledge that the IRS has filed a Notice of Federal Tax Lien for the taxes owed under the installment agreement. O Pending IRS approval: When a borrower has applied for an installment agreement and it is pending IRS approval, the following requirements must be met: The application for the installment agreement reflecting the amount of taxes owed divided by 72 must be included in the DTI ratio. There must be no indication, and the lender must have no knowledge that the IRS has filed a Notice of Federal Tax Lien for the taxes owed under the installment agreement. The application for the installment agreement reflecting the amount of taxes owed and requested payment terms must be included in the DTI ratio. There must be no indication, and the lender must have no knowledge that the IRS has filed a Notice of Federal Tax Lien for the installment agreement. The greater of the monthly payment amount requested by the borrower or the amount of taxes owed divided by 72 must be included in the DTI ratio. There must be no

	 Contingent liabilities may only be excluded from the DTI with proof the borrower is not the primary obligor.
	 Installment debt must be paid in full to be excluded. Borrowers may not pay down installment debts to less than 10 months to exclude Mortgage Payment History
	 The mortgage payment history reflected on the credit report can be used to meet mortgage payment history requirements. Refer to the applicable AUS/GSE Selling Guide for complete requirements. Private mortgages may be verified with canceled checks or bank statements
	 Handwritten verification documents including, Verification of Mortgages (VOM) or Verification of Rents (VOR), are not eligible
	 If there is evidence the subject loan being refinanced, or any other mortgage the borrower is obligated to, is currently in forbearance the loan is ineligible (e.g., reflected on the credit report, mortgage statement, payoff statement, in SSE, etc.)
	 For Fannie Mae DU loans only: As a reminder, Fannie Mae requires the following: On the date of the loan application, the borrower's existing mortgage(s) must be current, which means that no more than 45 days have elapsed since the last paid installment. If the credit report does not reflect the above, proof the additional loan payments were paid on time is required. Refer to Fannie Mae Selling Guide for complete requirements.
Credit	Second Home / Investment Properties / Non-Occupant Borrowers Current Housing Payment
	 Borrowers must document their current housing expense with one of the following when they do not currently own a primary residence: Six months canceled checks or equivalent payment source; Six months bank statements reflecting a clear and consistent payment to an organization or individual
	 Direct verification of rent from a management company or individual landlord, supported by two months cancelled checks; or A copy of a current, fully executed lease agreement and two months canceled checks (or equivalent payment source) supporting the rental payment amount. For second home transactions where the borrower is living rent-free, the borrower's rent-free status must be documented. A rent-free
	 In Second home transactions where the borrower is nong rent nee, the borrower is rent nee status must be documented. Arent nee letter from a third-party verification source may be acceptable. Non-occupant borrowers Non-occupant co-borrowers must share a relationship meeting gift donor under applicable Agency guidelines. Non-occupant co-borrowers must have a reasonable housing payment. Rent free is not acceptable.

Condominiums	 Condominium projects must be Agency warrantable. In accordance with the Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac Selling Guides CPM or CPA must be checked to ensure the project is not "unavailable" or "ineligible" regardless of the project review process used in underwriting the loan (this includes Limited/Streamline project reviews). Condominium projects with a status of CPM "unavailable" or CPA "ineligible" are ineligible. The CPM or CPA certificate must be retained in the loan file. Limited/Streamline condominium project reviews are eligible for Agency High Balance loan amounts only. New condo projects are eligible if the project is Fannie Mae or Lender CPM approved or Freddie Mac CPA approved. For all transactions: New projects in Florida are not eligible unless Fannie Mae PERS approved ("Approved by Fannie Mae" status designation in CPM). Florida Condos are allowed in accordance with the underlying AUS/GSE Selling Guide requirements. All project documentation needed to demonstrate that the project meets Agency eligibility requirements, including any documentation relied upon to enter information into CPM or CPA must be retained in the loan file. Jumbo loan amounts require a full project review. Fannie Mae Condo Project Manager (CPM) or Freddie Mac Condo Project Advisor (CPA) must be used to assist in the full review of the project. Fannie Mae DU loans: Use CPM. Freddie Mac LPA loans: Use CPA. A reciprocal review from CPM is eligible; however, CPA must also be checked to ensure the project is not "ineligible". FHA reciprocal reviews are ineligible. Projects in which the HOA is named as a party to pending litigation, or for which the project sponsor or developer is named as a party to pending litigation that relates to the safety, structural soundness, habitability, or functional use of the project are ineligible. Projects with pending litigation that involve minor matters with no impact on the safety, structural soundness, habitability, or functional use of the project, may be eligible if the litigation meets applicable Agency requirements for minor matters.
